

were not in the associated Press dispatches published in the East. I know how sensitive our southern friends are on this matter of social equality and companionship, and I think I might say fairly and properly—and that perhaps I have a right to say—that it is not wise for the people of the North to undertake to deal rashly or even to judge hastily of a feeling so deeply implanted in their bosoms.

Time, the great reconciler, will reconcile them to that. If it is the nature of the thing and the nature of man they will be reconciled to it. And if in the nature of things and in the nature of man time does not reconcile them, it will be a sign that they ought not to be reconciled to it, and that some other mode of life for them must be devised.

Now, my friends, having said what I thought to say on this question, perhaps I may be indulged in adding that, although my life politically and personally has been a life of almost constant strife with the leaders of the southern people, yet as I grow older I have learned not only to respect and esteem, but to love the great qualities which belong to them. Their love of home, their courage, their delicate sense of honor, their constancy, which can abide by an opinion or a purpose or an interest for their States through adversity and through prosperity, are things by which the people of the more merciful North may take a lesson. And there is another thing—conscientiousness, the low temptation of money has not yet found any place in our southern politics.

Now, my friends, we cannot afford to live, in a state of estrangement from a people who possess these qualities. They are friends of ours, and their enemies are our enemies. Their blood, and their sweat, and their tears, are the blood, the sweat, and the tears of the North, and wherever we go, we are their people, and they are our people, and they are our people.

There is just a bare possibility of an extra session of Congress. Should one of the big appropriation bills fail to pass, of course, there would be an extra session called. This is not likely to occur.
It is much more likely that there will be an extra session of the Senate.
There will be one should the Cuban and Panama Canal bills be passed.
It may be very probable that they will not. The President has said emphatically that he will call an extra session of the Senate in case the treaties are not ratified.

Congressman Glass is enjoying the visit of his two little boys, who came up from Lynchburg to-day. Mr. Glass is very busy now attending to some matters in the department. He is endeavoring to get the word of a constituent into the navy, and also to get an increase of salary for some of the rural carriers of his district.

CLOSETED FIVE HOURS

King Case Instructions Closely Argued.

COL. CUTSHAW TO TESTIFY

The Charge That Others Beside King Were Included in Gasser's Alleged Statements May Yet Cause Investigation in the Council.

For a period of probably five hours yesterday Commonwealth's Attorney Richardson, prosecutor of John M. King, on trial in the Hustings Court, charged with having accepted a bribe while serving as an Alderman from Jefferson Ward, and Messrs. Meredith and Carter, representing the accused, were closed with Judge Ingram, and the proposed instructions were argued pro and con. Literally the day was given over to this work, the trial of the ex-Alderman having been postponed until Monday on account of the religious object of one of the jurors.

At the request of the Judge and the attorneys on either side, the gist of the argument is withheld from publication, as it is feared that the jury might be affected one way or the other by reading this talk. Judge Ingram has exerted his best efforts to allow no evidence or other matter to come to the attention of the jury that they should not hear, and he is particularly anxious that the verdict shall be made up in accordance with the evidence and the law and that no outside influence shall be brought to bear.

At 10 o'clock yesterday afternoon the work had been completed, and to-morrow morning when Court is reconvened the written instructions, prepared by the lawyers, will be inspected by Judge Ingram. Provided they are in accord with the agreement reached about certain points involved, Judge Ingram will ratify them, and at the proper time they will be given to the jury.

AN INVESTIGATION OF THE DEFENSE
The evidence offered by Assistant City Engineer Tallaferro Friday afternoon, when he swore positively that Gasser told him the names of five men and said that seven members of the old Street Committee of whom King, the defend-ent, was one, were corrupt, has created quite a sensation in local political circles. It has been received with more interest and caused more general discussion and speculation than any evidence so far adduced in the hearing.

It has been suggested that, inasmuch as the grand jury did not examine Mr.
Tallaferro and was, therefore, in ignorance of the facts in his possession, there is a probability of general investigation of the Council being again undertaken.

When the trial is resumed to-morrow morning City Engineer Cutshaw will be placed on the stand. He will be required to testify to the statements made by Gasser, and to the statements made

Thousands Have Kidney Trouble And Do Not Even Suspect It.

Do Not Neglect Your Kidneys, Because if Kidney Trouble is Permitted to Continue, Fatal Results Are Sure to Follow.

It used to be considered that only urinary and bladder troubles were to be traced to the kidneys, but now modern science proves that nearly all diseases have their beginning in the disorder of these most important organs.

Therefore, when your kidneys are weak or out of order, you can understand how quickly your entire body is affected, and how every organ seems to fail to do its duty.

If you are sick or "feel badly" begin taking the great kidney remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, because as soon as your kidneys are well they will help all the other organs to health. A trial will convince any one.

Did Not Know I Had Kidney Trouble
Gentlemen:—About 18 months ago I was extremely sick for three weeks and when I was able to leave my bed I was left with excruciating pains in my back. My water at times looked very much like coffee. I could pass but little at a time, and then only after suffering great pain.
My physical condition was such that I had no strength and was all run down. The Doctors said my kidneys were not affected, and while I did not know I had kidney trouble, I somehow felt certain that my kidneys were the cause of my trouble. I procured a bottle of Swamp-Root from inside of three days commenced to get relief. I followed up that bottle with another, and at the completion of this one found I was completely cured. My cure is very gratifying to me.

Mrs. H. N. Wheeler, 117 High Rock St., Lynn, Mass.

Weak and unhealthy kidneys are responsible for more sickness and suffering than any other disease, and if permitted to continue much suffering, with fatal results, are sure to follow. Kidney trouble irritates the nerves, makes you dizzy, restless, sleepless and irritable; makes you pass water often during the day and obliges you to get up many times during the night. Unhealthy kidneys cause rheumatism, gravel, catarrh of the bladder, pain or dull ache in the back, joints or muscles; makes your head and back ache, causes indigestion, stomach and liver trouble, you get a sallow, yellow complexion, makes you feel as

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The Senate miral Dewey and the officers and men

000 for the payment of claims of Con-

MADE HIS HOME

(By Associated Press.)

a state of intoxication and crazed by drink, Wm. Farmer, deputy sheriff and a well-to-do farmer of Clayton county, last night shot and killed his father-in-law, James Christian, mortally wounded his wife and then placed a pistol to his heart and fired, dying instantly.

It is claimed that Farmer was under the influence of liquor when he reached his home last night. His wife had threatened some time previously to leave Farmer on account of his dissipation.
On his arrival last night it is stated that Farmer began abusing and mis-treating Mrs. Farmer, who attempted to defend herself against his attacks, when Farmer drew his gun and fired, the bullet piercing her lungs. James Christian, her father, hearing her screams, and the shot, hurried to her assistance. As he reached the room, Farmer shot him dead in his tracks, the bullet entering his heart, passing entirely through his body.

Farmer's son, who had come into the room, was covered with a pistol by his father, who told him that he would kill him instantly if he made an outcry.
Farmer then placed the pistol against his breast and fired, killing himself instantly.

Mrs. Farmer is thought to be dying, and physicians state there is no chance whatever for her recovery. Farmer had been a resident of the county for a number of years, and had a large property, considered an energetic and honest citizen.

THE WOMAN CONFESSED

Mystery of Chicago Postoffice Robbery Is Cleared Up.

ATTYWADE FOUND GUILTY

The Received Stolen Property—Said He Could Dispose of Anything from a Frame House to a Postage Stamp at 80c. on the $1.

(By Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, February 28.—State Attorney Deneen announced this afternoon that he had come into possession of proofs showing that he had robbed the Chicago postoffice on October 20, 1901, of postage stamps valued at $74.00, and that he and Postoffice Inspector Stuart were at work preparing the evidence for presentation to a Federal grand jury. The State Attorney, through a full confession made by Mrs. Lulu Moll, who turned State's evidence against Attorney Richard A.
Wade, Thomas McNelly and others charged with receiving stolen property, learned how the proceeds of the postoffice robbery were divided, who dug the tunnels under the building, who bored the holes in the floor of the steel vault and where the plunder was stored.

Mrs. Moll broke down this afternoon in State's Attorney Deneen's office and admitted the truth of the evidence against the postoffice robbers.

Charles Moll, husband of Lulu Moll, and one of the most daring and dangerous crooks known to the police of the United States, is now serving a term in the Michigan penitentiary for burglary in Lansing, Mich.

Richard Wade sprang into prominence when he defended Prendergast, the assassin of Mayor Harrison.

PENITENTIARY SENTENCE.
Attorney Richard A. Wade was found guilty to-night of receiving stolen property and disposing of it. The value of the property is fixed by the jurors at $125, entailing a penitentiary sentence. Wade was on trial with Margaret Winters and Thomas McNelly. Mrs. Moll changed her plea from guilty and was a State witness.

Friday afternoon, by direction of Judge McEwan, the jury found McNelly and Mrs. Winters not guilty and dismissed them, leaving only Wade to be tried.
The property in question was a board-ment of four stolen in Clinton, Iowa, by Charles Moll, husband of Mrs. Moll.
Furs valued at $3.00 were shipped from Clinton in one night. Mrs. Moll obtained the furs, receipt from her husband, and told Wade of it. He said he could dispose of anything "from a postage stamp to the dollar," she said, and he and the woman agreed to do the deed and went to Chicago. Wade sold them to State Street furrier.
